You're Invited

To join fellow enthusiasts who share your interest in the Gulf, Mobile & Ohio Railroad and its predecessors. A not-for-profit organization which has over 600 members in most of the states and several foreign countries. Among the best of railroad historical societies, the GM&OHS preserves the history of the company, its operations, facilities, and equipment. Your membership will provide you with numerous benefits, as listed following:

The GM&OHS NEWS.....
magazine.....You'll receive three issues per year of the GM&OHS NEWS, a professionally produced, full-size, and colorful magazine that is filled with well-researched articles with never-before-published photos, drawings, maps, and diagrams. Each issue will be a valuable addition to your library.

GM&OHS SWITCHLIST

newsletter.....The SWITCHLIST, a quality tri-annual newsletter that's filled with news of surviving ex-GM&O line segments, equipment and facilities, advance information on the latest commercial models and Society-produced limited-run models.

Annual CALENDAR.....

All classes of members now receive our annual 12-month wall calendar featuring an 8-1/2 X 11 inch quality full-size photo each month. Subjects cover all eras, the GM&O as well as predecessor companies, steam, diesel, freight, and passenger subjects. Members may order additional calendars at a discounted price.

LIMITED-RUN MODELS

Dozens of cars with unique markings based on prototype photos have been produced, and more are planned. Only correct model kits are offered in single and multiple sets. Among models already offered are cabooses, boxcars, hoppers, gondolas, tank, and refrigerator cars. Society members receive advance notice of availability.

The Alton Route

ANNUAL MEETINGS.....

A convention-style annual Society meeting is held during an autumn weekend at a GM&O on-line location where members renew friendships, swap information, attend modeling and historical seminars, and tour/visit local points of interest. Buy/sell/swap for rail-hobby merchandise at a flea-market train show. You may donate items to be sold for Society fund-raising. At the annual meeting we host a banquet with informative speakers, and entertaining slide and video presentations. Members receive discounts on vendor table rentals at the train show, and special package prices for the weekend's events.

ARCHIVES.....

Over the past 50 years the GM&OHS has maintained friendly relations with several museums and collectors. For researchers and authors, we can put you in touch with these sources.
